

THEY'RE SAYING that Patty Larkin is the hottest white blues singer in Boston — or is it rock, or jazz? Her varied repertoire and command of style have set the Hub abuzzing. She's also been touted as the Boston Guitar Workshop's hottest guitar teacher. Mary Lea, formerly of Ladies Chain, now with Yankee Ingenuity in Boston, tells me that Patty is a very strong lady, comes through with lots of feeling, and is funny funny funny.

Patty Larkin and her guitar will be appearing so/o at the Iron Horse Tuesday
